

The morse code requirement should NOT be eliminated. Radiotelegraphy is still a viable emergency communications mode. One of the main reasons for Amateur Radio is emergency communications. The 5wpm morse code proficiency standard is easily attained by anyone with the desire and interest in a license.